LADIES VISITING

ulifornia immediately observe the clear, perfect and healthy complexions of their sisters of the Golden Gate. Upon the streets of San Francisco, at the theatre and opera, and at the many fashionable resorts throughout the interior, the most casual observer notes the absence of sallowness, eruptions, rough-'ss and other blemishes, unfortunately the bane of many 's' existence. This is the more remarkable from the fact 1 the climate of California is particularly trying to the mplexion. Nothing is better understood by ladies than the net that the delicate skin requires protection from the vicisitudes of atmospheric changes; and it becomes, therefore, a atter of first importance to be able to discriminate between eparations which exert a soothing, beneficial and beautifying influence upon the skin and complexion and those found to be injurious to the skin and dangerous to health. The various *Baims," "Cremes," "Blooms," and face powders in common use throughout the South and West, are in California generally discarded; but no toilet is considered complete without a bottle of the favorite

"CAMELLINE,"

This elegant article, prepared by WAKELEE & Co., the leading chemists of San Francisco, and certified as harmless by the highest medical and scientific authority, has, wherever introduced, taken the first place in the estimation of LADIES, as a preservative and beautifier of the complexion. It is prepared white or tinled, and may now be obtained at all the principal derg stores throughout the country.
